Collect for The Twenty-First Sunday After Trinity

O God, we remember before you those who laid down their lives for freedom and truth, and we pray that we may be worthy of their sacrifice. Help us to be faithful and true to those ideals for which they fought and died. May we continue to honour their memory by our service to veterans and their loved ones, and remembering our solemn obligation may we ever pray: LORD GOD OF HOSTS, BE WITH US YET, LEST WE FORGET, LEST WE FORGET.

Message from Rev. Marian - Dear friends in Christ - This day we acknowledge those faithful members of our Armed Forces who have served our country in all past wars and in peace time. We give thanks for their service and know so well that Atlantic Canadians represented a significant number of service personnel in the cause of world peace. Let us give thanks for every act of sacrifice, for every act of leadership, for every act of mutual care with their fellow comrades. Let us acknowledge that many suffered during their service and for many years thereafter. Let us give thanks for every person that provides professional and friendly support to our Armed Forces. The gospel reading from Matthew this morning reminds us that our support needs to be practical in nature, that we lift heavy burdens if we can, that we practice what we teach and preach, that we share in the work of community, that we are all called to humility before God and the teachings of Jesus. Blessings to each one of you in your week. Rev. Marian
